

A Benefit for the

O'Flaherty Irish Music Retreat

Saturday, September 29, 2018

6 p.m. until Midnight

Trinity Hall Restaurant & Pub
at Mockingbird Station next to Angelika Theater

On October 19-21, more than 250 students and 30 instructors will gather from throughout the country outside Midlothian, Texas for a three-day retreat to learn Irish music. Funds raised from this benefit will help offset the cost in bringing to Texas some of the most accomplished traditional players from Ireland and the US to teach. The retreat is produced by the Traditional Irish Music Education Society, a non-profit organization, and enthusiastically supported by the Trinity Hall Restaurant & Pub. Thanks in advance for all of your support!

Our performers in order of performance include:

Jigsaw
Skeleton McKee
Plectra
Behan
Three Pints and a Glass
Slugger's Rule

Generous portion of dining receipts donated to the retreat – so please EAT!
